

1-Day Itinerary

One day in Greenwood will leave you hungry for more, in more ways than one! Thanks to the compact nature and walkability of our downtown, you'll find lots to do without having to look for parking spaces and fighting traffic.

Downtown and Main Street Walking Tour

(Printed map included)

Begin with a copy of Main Street Greenwood's Walking Tour Brochure, which will lead you past such landmarks as Cotton Row, the 1906 Neoclassic Leflore County Courthouse, the 1914 Carnegie Library and a stretch of retail blocks which date back to the late 1890s. Stroll along the Yazoo River and have your picture made on Keesler Bridge, imagining it swinging into the river's path as steamboats passed. You'll see everything from the largest Elks Club in Mississippi (1912) to the renovated structure which housed Fountain's Big Busy Store (1914), a Delta destination for shoppers. Take time to visit the Alluvian Hotel, a world-renowned resort occupying the 1917 Hotel Irving building. Be sure to notice the elaborate brickwork and ubiquitous iron columns on many of the downtown storefronts.

Viking Cooking School

325 C Howard Street • 662-451-6750

Tuesday - Saturday 10:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Just across historic Howard Street from the Alluvian Hotel, the Viking Cooking School is housed in a former J. C. Penney building. Space that once held towels and dress racks now features a vast array of kitchen appliances and gadgets and the ever-popular demonstration kitchens. Reserve your space to learn the latest in culinary techniques, taught by Viking's personal chefs in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere.

The Alluvian Spa

325D Howard Street • 662-451-6700 • 866-728-6700 Toll Free

Located above the Viking Cooking School, the Alluvian Spa is Mississippi's most sought-out retreat for massages, facials, pedicures and "spoil-yourself-rotten" getaways. From a quick, relaxing massage to a full-day, full-body makeover, the professionals at the Alluvian Spa will make you feel as relaxed as a Delta summer evening.

Downtown Shopping

The beauty of Greenwood's downtown shopping district is its walkability, with everything you could imagine within a short stroll from any starting point. World-class antiques, unique children's fashions, Mississippi-made gifts and art, ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, hunting supplies and one of the state's most diverse bookstores: It's all just around the corner and the parking is free. Remember where you left your car, because you'll have lots of bags to carry back!

Dining Options

If you leave Greenwood hungry, you have only yourself to blame. Delta Bistropub's chef snagged a James Beard Award nomination, and the Ballas family has been rolling comfort food and world-famous pies out of the Crystal Grill's kitchen for three-quarters of a century. Giardina's and Lusco's feature upscale evening dining choices that range from pompano to porterhouse and Jeem's Diner boasts the best burger in the Delta. Expect the unexpected at Delta Bistropub, a fresh culinary experience for the Delta with unique specials updated daily. Turnrow Books' upstairs cafe is the place to go for lunchtime soups, salads and sandwiches, and Webster's is a cozy spot just across the Keesler Bridge in North Greenwood. Other culinary temptations range from Serio's open-face meatball sandwich to Veronica's intricate cakes and treats to Steven's barbecue brisket and famous chocolate cake. If your tastes run to local wines, check out The Winery at Williams Landing, located in Greenwood's restored Fire Station #1 at the south end of Howard Street. Besides the expected muscadine, they also feature interesting fig (Delta Dew) and blueberry (Delta Blue) wines.
